OPEN TO THE PUBLIC • NO PETS Rules and Regulations

1. Displays must be set up between 7:00 and 8:30 A.M. on the day of the Flea Market, and must be removed between 2:00 and 3:00 P.M. on the same day. Official selling hours are between 9:00 A.M. and 2 P.M. No vehicles will be allowed in the Flea Market area during these hours, unless authorized by the organizers of the Flea Market or the Military Police.

2. You are responsible for supplying your own tables, chairs, equipment, canopies or tents, to fit within your 10'x10' allotted space. No utilities are available. You are also responsible for cleaning up your area after the event by removing all unsold items, trash and your vehicle by 3:00 PM. Fort Gordon has a mandatory recycling program per order of the Post Commander.

3. No refunds will be made because of delays due to bad weather, because vendor cannot participate or for any other reason. All other rules and regulations will apply.

4. This contract is between the participant and the Flea Market organizers (not Fort Gordon nor the U.S. Government.) There will be no subletting of spaces. Neither the U.S. Government nor the organizers of the Flea Market are responsible for any loss to the participant due to acts caused by a third party, the participant, or acts of nature.

5. The U.S. Government and the organizers of the Flea Market will not be held responsible for any damage, loss, injury, accident, or death during the event.

6. Prohibited Items: No food/beverage booths including baked goods will be allowed. No live animals, dangerous or illegal weapons (to include knives, guns, etc.), vehicles, or materials offensive to the public morality will be sold. Final determination of these items will be made by the Military Police and the organizers of the Flea Market. You may not sell new items that the PX or Commissary carry.

7. Violation of any of the rules and regulations of the Flea Market by the participant will result in removal. There will be no refund given.

8. Recognized Direct Sales Companies may only be represented once (except LuLaRoe and Agnes & Dora – Max 2) at the Flea Market promoting exclusively at the event and spaces will be sold on a first come, first serve basis. Direct Sales vendors will select their desired Flea Market space and an additional $20 fee will be added for exclusive products sales rights. This vendor offer cannot be combined to the Active Duty/E6 & below space discount.

9. Any returned checks or overdrafts, stop payments, etc., will result in a returned processing fee of $25.00 by the IMWR.

10. Vendor must be physically selling approved items. No advertising, soliciting, distributing of unauthorized items or accepting of donations.

11. All Flea Market vendors are required to enter Fort Gordon thru Gate 3 the morning of the event and are subject to search before gaining access to post. Non-military ID cardholders 18 years and older must present a valid driver's license or State-issued ID, also proof of insurance and vehicle registration may be required.

Applications

Mail-in applications must be completed and received no later than April 26, 2018.

The application must be accompanied by the entry fee and a brief description of items to be sold. Failure to provide documents will result in denial of sales approval. All items must be approved. Spaces are sold on a first come, first served basis and spaces will not be held without complete payment. If your first choice is a drive-up space and all are filled, you will be given an inside space unless otherwise specified by you. Please indicate your second choice. The difference will be refunded. Should a vendor's space become unavailable for any reason, we retain the right to move the vendor to a space of equal or greater value.

Notification of acceptance and space assignment will be made upon receipt of application and space fee.

If space is available, applications will be accepted in person until noon on April 26, 2018.
