

Dr. Gresham is a Behavioral Health Administrator with approximately 30 years of professional experience. She serves as Principal Consultant for Gresham Consulting Group Inc. since 2014. Her capacity includes advising other entities in service delivery, budgeting, staff development, marketing and policy development. Dr. Gresham is a Master Addiction Counselor (MAC), expert in substance abuse practice. She was co-founder and Executive Director of Southeastern Behavioral Health Services, Inc., Augusta, GA (2007-14). Previously, she was the Regional Director of a SAMHSA project (Southeast Addiction Technology Transfer Center), Morehouse School of Medicine (2001-08). Dr. Gresham is the recipient of a Bachelor of Social Work from the University of Alabama at Birmingham; Master of Social Work from University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa; and received her Doctorate of Philosophy in Social Work at Clark Atlanta University, Atlanta, GA.

Coming to Fort Gordon

Dr. Kay Gresham

Ph.D., LCSW, MAC

Army Community Service/Family Advocacy Program

presents

Ethics in Practice: Behavioral Health and Addictive Behavior

March 8, 2019

8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

Darling Hall

307 Chamberlain Avenue, Building 33720

Room 229A-B

Seating begins at 7:30 a.m.

To register online, visit:

fortgordon.com/epbhab

Smart phone registration by:

March 4, 2019

For more information:

Betty L Ward 706-791-1882

Veeola Peters 706-791-3579

