

A vibrant, colorful illustration for Children's Book Week. It features three children: a girl on the left reading a book, a girl in the center with glasses and a striped scarf holding an open book, and a boy on the right with glasses reading. The background is filled with stacks of books, a smiling cloud, a hot air balloon, and various plants and leaves. The title 'Children's BOOK WEEK' is written in a playful font inside a white cloud shape.
